Office Hours

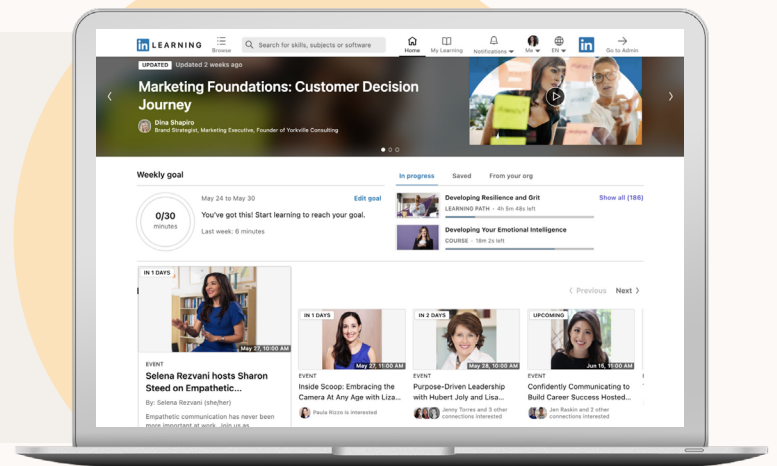

Live events hosted by Instructors on LinkedIn Learning

Office Hours engages learners with interactive learning events hosted by experts they can learn from, alongside a community they can build new skills with. Tune in to stay on top of industry trends, watch guest interviews, and participate in open Q&A discussions.

How it works

Discovery

Learners will discover a new carousel for Office Hours on the LinkedIn Learning homepage. Hover over content cards for event details.

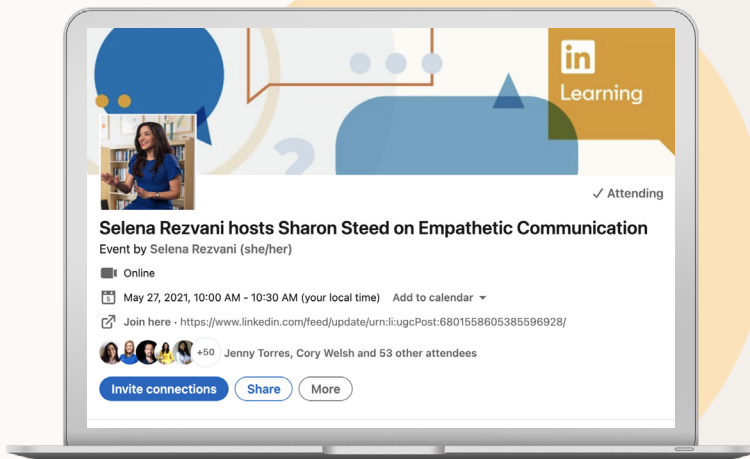

Event Page

Clicking on the content card will take learners to the Event Page where they can:

- RSVP
- View all the speakers, details about the event
- Get notified before Event start
- Chat with other attendees, participate in polls

If an Event is already live when the learner clicks on the course card, it will take them directly to the livestream in-progress
